Outline:

- GOD INSTRUCTS NOAH FOLLOWING THE FLOOD (9:1-7):
    + God told Noah and his sons to have children and repopulate the earth.
    + He gave them all the animals and plants for food but told them not to eat meat that contained blood. Blood was to be respected because it gave life to animals and humans.
    + If a man killed another man, the murderer was to be put to death.
    + Murder was a very serious crime because God made humans in His image.
- GOD'S PROMISE AND THE RAINBOW (9:8-17):
    +God made a covenant with Noah, his sons, and with all the animals that came out of the ark.
    + A covenant is "a usually formal, solemn, and binding agreement" (Webster).
    + God promised never to flood the earth and destroy all living things again.
    + He gave the rainbow as a reminder of His covenant.
- NOAH'S DRUNKENESS AND HAM'S CURSE (9:18-29):
    + Noah had three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
    + One day, Noah became drunk on the wine from his vineyard and lay naked in his tent.
    + Ham saw his father naked and went and told his two brothers.
    + Shem and Japheth took a garment and covered their father without looking at him in his embarrassing state.
    + When Noah awoke and realized what his children had done, he cursed Ham's son (Canaan) and declared that Ham's offspring would be servants to his brother's offspring.
    + Noah blessed Japheth and Shem for the kindness and dignity they showed him.
    + Noah lived 350 years after the flood and died at the age of 950.
